

GRADUATE DIPLOMA IN DEMOCRATIC ADMINISTRATION

--- Enrolment Form ---

Graduate Diploma in Democratic Administration is offered by The Graduate Program in Political Science and awarded concurrently with a Masters or Doctoral degree.

The Diploma program aims to equip students with both the analytical and practical insights needed to help build more democratic and responsive institutions. The program is geared to both new and returning students who aspire to leadership positions.

DIPLOMA REQUIREMENTS

Students must complete the program requirements of the degree for which they are registered. In order to receive a Diploma in Democratic Administration following requirements must also be satisfied:

- i) Successfully complete GS POLS 6155 3.0: Democratic Administration. This course is an additional requirement, over and above regular degree requirements, and may not be counted towards the course requirements for the Masters or Doctoral degrees.
- ii) Write a Major Research paper, Thesis or Dissertation on a topic related to Democratic Administration approved by the Coordinator of the Democratic Administration Diploma.

This application form should be completed when commencing your studies towards the Graduate Diploma, and submitted to:
